[Sri G. Krishnamoorthy] [5th March 1959

Is a committee necessary to go into these matters? I have heard of committees being appointed just to go into certain complicated matters but here the Government are able to see that the teachers are not able to make both ends meet. They know their demands and the resolutions passed by them at various conferences. So, is a committee necessary? Why should these things be delayed? Eight years of Plan period have passed now and nothing has been done during the Second Plan period which is coming to a close. We do not know what the Third Five-Year Plan would be, how it would proceed to meet the demands of the teachers, whether we would have funds and whether we would have the same enthusiasm and whether our case will not go by default. Therefore, I would beg of the Government to see that before the end of the Second Plan period, the teacher is given a living wage in the interest of at least the future of the nation.

Finally, I would say that because the content of education has not been revised by the Government at the level at which it ought to have been maintained, I would request them to appoint a committee to go into the whole matter fully and draw up a National Scheme of Education, wherein we will have the necessary physical Education, the necessary intellectual up-to-date equipment—leaving all the unnecessary trash that we have in the syllabus—and the necessary education for moral stature—let it be through religious education or moral education. Then only, we can just avoid all these dissensions and indiscipline in schools and also dissensions in society, and we can get unity in our country to preserve our hard-won freedom.
